Pentecost 5

- Today is the fifth Sunday after Pentecost.
- In Pentecost we learn to love our neighbor.
- Our neighbor is not just the person who lives next to us!

Rhyming Tree

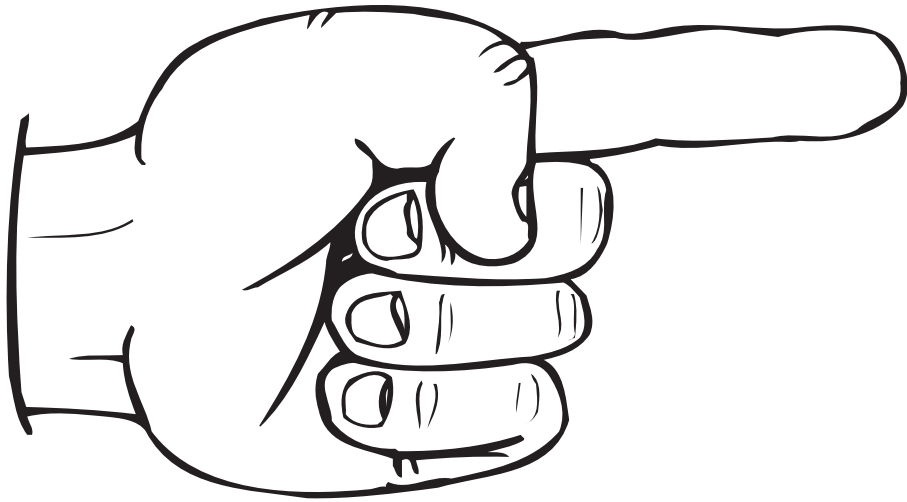

Fill this tree's branches with all of the words you can think of that rhyme with tree. Bonus: Can you think of any rhyming words that are two syllables? Three syllables?

In today's Bible story, Jesus tells us that a Samaritan man stopped and helped a wounded man in need. He cared for and loved his neighbor. Jesus told the people who were listening to "go and do likewise." Write today's memory verse in the pointed finger.

Memory Verse

Jesus told him, "Go and do likewise." Luke 10:37

The Samaritan sounds like he was a kind, helpful man, doesn't he? Wouldn't he make a good neighbor? But here's something you might not know about this story! Samaritans were seen as enemies—foreign, unclean, despicable enemies. That's what makes this story so radical!
